THE 7 LAWS OF MENTAL MASTERY

This keynote goes far beyond motivation—it’s a blueprint for rewiring the mind. Maximus fuses neuroscience, psychotherapy, and emotional intelligence to teach audiences how to take control of their inner dialogue and mental patterns.

Attendees learn how to master stress under pressure, sharpen focus in high-stakes environments, and build unshakable resilience that lasts long after the event. With a mix of real-life stories, practical strategies, and Maximus’s R³ Method (Recognize, Reframe, Release), participants leave with a clear roadmap for upgrading their thinking and reclaiming their mental power.

HEALING OUT LOUD:

Reframing Trauma into Triumph

This is one of Maximus’s most vulnerable and transformative talks. Through powerful storytelling and raw honesty, he breaks the silence around trauma and mental health while normalizing conversations that too often stay hidden.

Audiences are guided to see pain not as a permanent wound, but as an invitation to growth. Maximus shares neuroscience-backed tools and SoulScience practices to process emotions, reframe limiting narratives, and transform adversity into strength. Every participant walks away feeling less alone, more empowered, and equipped with strategies to turn their struggles into fuel for their future.

Workshop Facilitation

"Healing isn't a luxury—it's the foundation of growth."

Maximus Lerois delivers transformational workshops that merge emotional intelligence, neuroscience, and lived experience. Each session is designed to spark breakthroughs, equip participants with tools they can use immediately, and create spaces where growth feels safe, practical, and lasting.

THE BACKPACK OF BURDENS:

What We're All Carrying—and How to Let Go

An unforgettable keynote-turned-workshop. Attendees explore their own “Soul Weights”—hidden emotional burdens—and practice tools to lighten the load, shift perspective, and rise higher.

Step 1: Identify your “Soul Weights” (shame, anger, anxiety, imposter).

Step 2: Explore how these weights impact your choices and performance.

Step 3: Practice reframing tools to lighten the emotional load.

Step 4: Commit to releasing burdens and rising higher. Includes an interactive reflection worksheet.

MENTAL HEALTH IS A LIE

*Why You Haven't Healed Yet -
And the Missing Piece No One Taught You*

By Maximus Lerois— Psychotherapist, Author, Global Speaker, and Marine Corps Veteran

What if everything you've been taught about "mental health" is only half the truth?

In "Mental Health Is a Lie," best-selling author, psychotherapist, and U.S. Marine veteran Maximus Lerois challenges the outdated approach to healing and introduces a revolutionary new framework that combines neuroscience, emotional intelligence, and spiritual alignment.

Through real stories, lived experience, and science-based tools, Maximus reveals that people aren't broken—they're burdened. Each of us is carrying an emotional backpack filled with inherited trauma, nervous system overload, and unprocessed pain that blocks our potential.

This book introduces The R³ Method™ — Recognize, Reframe, Release — a practical, heart-led process that helps readers:

- ✓ Recognize the hidden Soul Weights keeping them stuck
- ✓ Reframe pain into purpose and power
- ✓ Release what was never theirs to carry

Mental Health Is a Lie isn't about rejecting therapy or medication—it's about completing the picture. It teaches readers how to heal where it truly happens: in the body, the nervous system, and the soul.

Drawing from his journey—from South L.A. to the battlefields of Afghanistan to global stages around the world—Maximus offers a roadmap to resilience, emotional mastery, and wholeness.

"You are not broken. You are becoming. You are W.H.O.L.E."

Maximus's mission is simple yet transformative: to rewire humanity through healing—and help the world make healing a habit.
